A BIG FIRE LOSS.

Manchester Has One-Half Million Blaze.

Handsome "The Kennard" Block Totally Destroyed.

Flames Also Damage Two Other Big Blocks.

Manchester, Jan. 15.—The destruction of The Kennard block, granite structure, considered to be the finest business office block in New England, north of Boston, proved to be the worst fire here for many years, the total loss being a round one-half million. Besides The Kennard, situated on Elm street, the Smyth block on the opposite side was partially burned, and considerable damage was done to the home of the Derryfield club in the rear of The Kennard. In the Smyth block were the Park theatre, occupied last night by J. Z. Little's dramatic company presenting The World, and two banks. The Kennard was totally destroyed. The fire started at about nine o'clock last night on the first floor in the clothing store of Allen and Kimball. The first warning the occupants of The Kennard had was an explosion that resounded through the city like a cannonading. The firemen, who had immediately responded, made a great effort to stop the fire on the first floor, but the flames had got between the floors and running north and south the structure seemed to burst out in flames in all parts. Of the scores of occupants of The Kennard in business hours there were quite a number of tenants in their offices last night, and although some had exciting experiences, all reached the sidewalk in safety. As soon as the firemen realized that the fire was beyond control Concord and Nashua were asked for assistance. In forty-five minutes the flames burned through the roof and over the centre of the structure. From that moment the block was doomed, and soon after eleven the walls began to fall. In spite of all efforts the flames jumped Water street and set fire to the Smyth block. The flames caught on the hood on top of the block which served as a covering for the theatre stage, and the firemen in order to get at it, had to go into the theatre orchestra. So well was the fire handled at this point that the block was saved and the most damage was to the theatre stage. The block, however, was badly damaged by water. When one of the rear walls of The Kennard fell the roof of the Derryfield club building was ignited, but the blaze was put out with $10,000 damage. All the stores facing The Kennard were more or less damaged. The fire was thought to have started from new electrical connections which had been made in Allen and Kimball's store, Monday. The Kennard block was built in 1892 and cost $250,000. It is yet impossible to ascertain the individual losses of occupants, but they are conservatively placed at from $150,000 to $200,000.

HER CRUISE CUT SHORT.

The Hartford Aground and is Hit by Barge at New London.

New York, Jan. 14.—A series of minor accidents to the old training ship Hartford, which left the Brooklyn navy yard on Jan. 6, obliged her to return to the yard for repairs. The ultimate destination of the Hartford was Barbados, with stops at New London and Newport.

On her arrival at New London she ran aground and was stuck until high tide. She wasn't damaged and Commander Steeber decided to go on. Just as she swung out into the stream, a tow of coal barges collided with her. It was discovered that the steamer gear of the Hartford has suffered.

The tug Nina, sent up from the navy yard, and the training ship arrived at Hell Gate in tow in a blinding snow storm on Saturday morning and anchored, being unable to navigate the channel in the storm. She was docked in the navy yard Tuesday.

BASEBALL MEN FOR CONCORD.

List of Over a Score, From Which Team of Fourteen Will Be Selected.

Concord, Jan. 14.—The baseball players from whom Manager John J. Carney of the Concord New England League team will select his players for next season are as follows: Catchers, Peter Agnew, Middletown, N. Y.; James Doran, New York city; Pitchers, John F. Hendricks, Manayunk, Pa.; Edgar C. Drinkwater, Hyde Park, Mass.; Nat Lee, Buffalo, N. Y.; Richard Jordan, Wilkesbarre, Pa.; William Leuth, Fishkill Landing, N. Y.; Frank O'Brien, St. Hyacinthe, P. Q.; W. L. Claremont, M. Gilroy, Fall River, Mass.; Infelders, John S. Carney, Manchester; M. S. Hagan, Cleveland, O.; Henry Lynch, Manchester; F. William Kerner, Philadelphia, Pa.; John Nugent, Jamestown, N. Y.; William A. Vaughn, Bloomfield, N. J.; Charles Krouse, Detroit, Mich.; John P. Bonner, Drifton, Pa.; Outfielders, George E. Hoblit, Chester, Pa.; Edward Kirwan, Wappinger Falls, N. Y.; John Ryan, Manayunk, Pa.; M. Gervais, St. Hyacinthe, P. Q.; Dan McCormick, Flinsdale, N. H. This aggregation will be winnowed to fourteen men at the opening of the league season.

AFTER CONCORD DEALERS.

City Marshal Notifies Holders of United States Licenses Not To Violate The Liquor Laws.

Concord, Jan. 14.—City Marshal Locke this afternoon issued a notification to all persons who are alleged to be holding United States license for the sale of malt or spirituous liquors, or both, that all violations of the law relating to the illegal sale or keeping for sale of spirituous or malt liquors will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. The list of parties holding licenses in the city numbers thirty-one and includes druggists and apothecaries as well as clubs and saloons. The police have been busy during the afternoon visiting the several parties, and by night the city will doubtless be as dry as Manchester and Nashua.

WON BY GOOD MARGIN.

Maryland Legislature Elects Arthur P. Gorman To The United States Senate.

Annapolis, Md., Jan. 14.—Arthur P. Gorman was today elected United States senator to succeed George L. Wellington. The total vote was: Gorman, 68; Jackson, 52. In the senate the vote was: Gorman, 17; Jackson, 9; and in the house, Gorman, 51; Jackson, 43. The legislature in joint session today re-elected Murry A. Van Diver, democrat, state treasurer for two years. Two republicans voted for Van Diver.

HOPE'S CONDITION SERIOUS.

London, Jan. 14.—For the past few days, Lord Francis Hope, who was recently accidentally shot while out hunting, and whose foot was subsequently amputated, has been in a serious condition. He is suffering with high fever.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Washington, Jan. 14.—Forecast for New England: Fair and warmer Wednesday; Thursday, partly cloudy, probably snow, light westerly to southerly winds.

Difficult Digestion

That is dyspepsia.

It makes life miserable.

Its sufferers eat not because they want to—but simply because they must.

They complain of a bad taste in the mouth, a tenderness at the pit of the stomach, a feeling of puffy fulness, headache, heartburn and what not.

Hood's Sarsaparilla cured Joseph F. Laine, Flanagan, Ky., who writes: "I was troubled with dyspepsia for a number of years and took medicine that did me no good. I was advised by friends to try Hood's Sarsaparilla which I did and it put my bowels in perfect condition, gave me strength and energy and made me feel like a new person."

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Promises to cure and keeps the promise. Beware of substitutes. Buy Hood's and only Hood's.

THREE LUCKY MEN

Envoyos To Coronation Of King Edward Announced

Gen. Wilson, Capt. Clark And Hon. Whitelaw Reid.

Three Secretaries Are Also Named By The President

Washington, Jan. 14.—After the cabinet meeting this afternoon the president authorized Secretary Hay to announce the names of the three special envoys to King Edward's coronation. They are: General James H. Wilson of Delaware, major-general of volunteers during the Spanish war, representing the army; Captain Charles E. Clark, the well-known commander of the Oregon during the Spanish war, representing the navy; the Hon. Whitelaw Reid of New York, as the civil ambassador. Three secretaries were also announced. They are J. Pierpont Morgan, Jr., of New York, Edmund Lincoln Bayley, and William Wetmore, son of Senator Wetmore of Rhode Island.

BRAKEMEN'S GRIEVANCE.

Those of the B. & M. Said to Have Several "Kicks Coming."

The brakemen of the Boston & Maine railroad have a grievance against the officials of the company which they intend to push. Already a meeting has been held to consider plans whereby the employes may meet their ends.

The brakemen state that the passes on all divisions of the road have been taken away from them and they are now allowed only passes to the destinations to which they run.

Up to the first of the year a brakeman employed on the Western division could secure passes on any division of the road, but now under the new rules, he can only give a pass covering the territory in which he runs when on duty. It is said that this curtailment of passes has been brought to bear on only the employees of the Western division, the other division employes being allowed the passes just as previously.

The Western division brakemen also have another grievance against the company. They state that every other week the "middle" brakeman is laid off—Newburyport News.

ASKS AN INVESTIGATION.

Washington, Jan. 14.—In the senate, today, Senator Hoar made a brief address on his resolution that a committee of seven senators shall be appointed by the chair to examine into and report upon the conduct of the war in the Philippines, the administration of government there and the condition and character of the inhabitants. He denied any intention of infringing upon the rights or jurisdiction of the committee on the Philippines, of which his distinguished colleague is chairman. He said his object was to obtain from some reliable source authentic information upon which the government can act intelligently.

CHANDLER VS. JACQUES.

Judge Charles F. Stone of Laconia, associate justice of the superior court was in Concord Monday and held a hearing by special arrangement. It was the litigation styled "Mrs. John P. Hale and Mrs. William E. Chandler vs. Lieut. W. H. Jacques and others." The action is an appeal from a decision rendered by Judge Thomas Leavitt of the Rockingham county probate court.

Eighteen months or so ago this case was brought before Judge Leavitt and he refused to grant permission to waive the rights of the will of Mrs. Jacques. One of the considerations was half of the then remaining estate. Streeter and Hollis appeared in the interests of Jacques and J. S. H. Frink, S. C. Eastman and ex-Senator W. E. Chandler for defendants.

ALL WAS QUIET.

The Passing of The Open Saloon Was Without Any Unusual Incidents.

There was nothing unusual, or disorderly, in the passing of the open saloon, which was closed in accordance with the order of the city marshal, at eleven o'clock on Tuesday night.

There was no disorder and though there were several cases of drunkenness, on the part of out-of-town people, there was but very little to indicate that it was the last night that liquor could be openly sold in the city.

Perhaps there was a rush at some of the bars, but the crowd was quiet and more seemed to be around to see how it seemed, than to drink heavily. The police were instructed to be especially active and to promptly subdue any demonstrations, should such occur, but there was nothing for them to do, except keep on their beats in the old time way.

The officers will make a tour of the places this morning to see that the orders issued have been complied with. Up to ten o'clock there had not been an arrest for drunkenness. The few that had mugged up a little too much were quiet and were going along apparently headed for home.

MONTHLY MEETING.

The regular monthly meeting of the P. A. C. was held at the club rooms Tuesday evening and was largely attended.

One new member was voted in.

The directors made a report on the proposed alterations of the club house, and as the owners of the building do not seem disposed to lay out any money in this connection, it was the sense of the club members that the building should be purchased. A committee of five was appointed to confer with the owners of the property in regard to purchasing the same.

General Manager Hasty of the coming minstrel show got his talent together for the first time and the opening chorus were rousing. Everybody is taking hold with a vim and the show will be a grand success.

1901 TEAM WON.

On Tuesday evening the Warner '01 played Warner '02 at basket ball in Peirce hall before a large audience. The game was a close one and the result was anxiously awaited by the spectators. The game resulted in a victory for '01, the score being 31 to 28. After the game dancing was in order, music being furnished by Knight's orchestra.

MERE MEN.

Sir Redvers Buller, having just attained the age of sixty-two, has five years to serve as a general officer on the active list of the British army. Paderewski keeps a valet, whose principal occupation is to rub the great pianist's fingers at stated times, to knead the palms of his hands and to crack his knuckles.

Alexander McDowell, clerk of the house of representatives at Washington, although at present a capitalist, was at one time a poor compositor on an oil city (Pa.) weekly.

James N. Laun of Middletown, N.Y., a preacher doctor and author, is ninety-nine years of age and has been married thirteen times. His first marriage occurred at Millford, Pa., in 1880.

In connection with the appointment of Mr. Payne to be postmaster general it is recalled that, with the exception of Mr. Wanamaker, no one since the civil war has served a full term in the position.

Tomas Estrada Palma, the first president elect of Cuba, is the descendant of a distinguished Castilian family and has been called the "Franklin of Cuba." Palma at one time conducted a school for boys at Central Valley, Orange county, N.Y.

Judge G. T. Moesker, for the last twelve years county judge of Outagamie county, Wis., will soon retire. His official record in one particular probably is without a parallel. During his entire term no appeal from his decision to a higher court has come back reversed.

Leon Zolotoff, Chicago's newly elected representative of the Zionist movement, is a Chicago lawyer, who was born in Wilna, Russia, thirty-eight years ago. He was one of the editors of the first daily paper in classic Hebrew published in St. Petersburg.

Hon. Ethan Allen Hitchcock, secretary of the interior, had a grocery and provision store in St. Joseph, Mo., when a young man and sold provisions mostly to pioneers passing through that city for the far west. He went to China after selling out and returned to St. Louis a wealthy man.

PEN AND BRUSH.

Algeron Charles Swinburne, now in his sixtieth year, is busy compiling a volume of poems selected from his works.

Dr. Samuel Smiles, the author of "Self Help," has just celebrated his ninetieth birthday. The doctor evidently knows how to live as well as to give advice.

The death of the distinguished historical painter Egisto Sarti is reported from Florence. Among his best known pictures are "The Duel of Dante da Castiglione" and "The Florentine Poets."

Sir Edwin Arnold has just had printed a poem in London which he wrote apropos of the ratification of the canal treaty. He depicts Balboa with the Spanish steel rod in his conquering hand viewing the Pacific ocean and thanking the queen of heaven for the glorious victory.

THE EFFETE EAST.

Japan's civilization is up to date, as she is now bothered to know what to do with her surplus.—Boston Transcript.

The Boers seem to be averse to taking the offensive except when they are actually in need of arms, ammunition and commissary supplies.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

The sultan has succeeded in negotiating a new loan of several million dollars, which would indicate that his credit is by no means so bad as it has been reported.—Pittsburgh Times.

The electric railroad to be built between Brighton and London is to be equipped with Pullman cars, and the forty-seven miles between the popular watering place and the British metropolis are to be covered in thirty minutes. This may be counted as another American triumph.—San Francisco Chronicle.

PERT PERSONALS.

Alfred Austin writes as if he feared that the American poets would join in the raid on British markets.—British American.

King Edward has decided that there will be no court jester at the coronation ceremonies. Waiting so many years for the crown is a serious matter.—Boston Journal.

As he rings up another fat fee the Hon. Thomas Brackett Reed smiles contentedly at the recollection of the time when he was a mere congressman.—St. Paul Globe.

Somebody has made the discovery that Rudyard Kipling used to take part in amateur theatricals. We have always suspected that a man who could write as he does must have a past.—Chicago Record-Herald.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.

There is no reason why Mississippi should not be one of the first cotton spinning states in the Union and doubtless one day will be.—New Orleans Picayune.

The progress of the south and its promise of continued prosperity are illustrated by the increased output of its mines and furnaces, together with the diversification of its iron and steel products.—Baltimore Sun.

There are more white illiterates today in the southeastern states than there were half a century ago—more not only in the aggregate, but proportionately—in spite of the defective public school systems in the south in antebellum days.—New Orleans Times Democrat.

FEMININE CHAT.

The government of Finland has appointed its first female architect. Her name is B. Nyberg.

The widow of Charles B. Lawborn, who died in New York the other day, is the daughter of Bayard Taylor, the poet and author.

Mrs. E. Burd Grubb of Edgewater Park, N.J., has had conferred upon her by the queen of Spain the order of Notre Dame of Marie Louise, an order which no American woman has ever before enjoyed.

Miss Lillian Marks, who labored in the famine districts of India for several years, is in this country, for the purpose of securing funds for the 500 orphans left in her care by the ravages of the famine.

Mme. Wu Ting Fang's mode of travel is interesting and odd. She goes in a push chair made in this country and looking in some respects a good deal like the wheeled chairs in general use, only vastly more expensive.

Tomas Estrada Palma, the first president elect of Cuba, is the descendant of a distinguished Castilian family and has been called the "Franklin of Cuba." Palma at one time conducted a school for boys at Central Valley, Orange county, N.Y.

Judge G. T. Moesker, for the last twelve years county judge of Outagamie county, Wis., will soon retire. His official record in one particular probably is without a parallel. During his entire term no appeal from his decision to a higher court has come back reversed.

Leon Zolotoff, Chicago's newly elected representative of the Zionist movement, is a Chicago lawyer, who was born in Wilna, Russia, thirty-eight years ago. He was one of the editors of the first daily paper in classic Hebrew published in St. Petersburg.

Hon. Ethan Allen Hitchcock, secretary of the interior, had a grocery and provision store in St. Joseph, Mo., when a young man and sold provisions mostly to pioneers passing through that city for the far west. He went to China after selling out and returned to St. Louis a wealthy man.

BETWEEN HEATS.

Bonnie Betsy, 2:20, trotting, will appear as a pacer next season.

J. L. Drury, owner of Onward Silver, 2:03, is a West Point graduate.

A. J. Welch will make an effort to have the grand circuit of 1902 begin and end at Cincinnati.

Nancy II, 2:17½, by Domineer, broke her leg recently at Chebany, Ill., in a fall and was put to death.

Crescens, 2:02½, weighs twenty-five pounds more than he did at the beginning of his strenuous campaign.

Palister, 2:10½, by Reputation, has added to the list and will be campaigned this year by A. P. McDonald.

A certificate of stock of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' association was sold recently at forced sale for $55, which was considered a good price.

The owner of the pacer Audubon Boy claims that his horse won $19,651 in 1901, making him the largest winner of the season in place of the trotter Elenta, who won $19,600.

George Castle of Chicago won with his eight horses last year 62 races out of 118 starts, was second 29 times, third 12 times, fourth 8 times and unplaced only 7 times. His total winnings were $13,492.50.

CURRENT COMMENT.

This country has 190,370 miles of railway, or vice versa.—Detroit News.

The anti-German Jingo is not yet developed in this country.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Lambs must have golden fleeces when stock exchange seats are sold for $80,000 apiece.—New York World.

The federal courts have decided that it is no crime to pass Confederate money on the Indians. This opens a new field of industry.—Baltimore American.

Letting the Christmas tree stand in the parlor until it becomes as dry as tinder and is accidentally set on fire not only makes trouble about the house, but involves a waste of good kindling material.—Chicago Tribune.

The movement for good roads and the efforts to lessen the number of dangerous grade crossings of the railroads are both so plainly demanded for the promotion of the public welfare that they should advance side by side and step by step.—New York Tribune.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY.

If the wireless telegraph is fully developed over here, it would give Yankee Doodle a chance to stick another feather in his cap and call it Marconi.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Now that Marconi has done something he will probably have the usual experience of such rash individuals. There will be plenty of persons ready to throw him down and take it away from him.—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

Wireless telegraphy may yet rob fog-bound coasts and the graveyards of the deep of their haunting terrors. It may keep the ocean traveler in touch with the world's events. It may be the means of saving vessels from disaster and their passengers from death.—Chicago Chronicle.

TOWN TOPICS.

Chicago, thy name is mud!—Chicago Tribune.

The campaign against smoke should go on until it wins.—Indianapolis News.

Judging from the manner in which the New Yorkers have managed the Brooklyn bridge it is about time they were resorting to tunnels.—Pittsburg Times.

THE TRAMP'S WANTS.

Was Willing to Do His Share In the Way of Accommodation.

Tramp—Please, m'm, would you be so kind as to let me have a needle and thread?

Mrs. Suburb—Well, yes, I can let you have that.

"Thankyou, m'm. Now, you'd oblige me very much if you'll let me have a bit of cloth for a patch."

"Well, here is some."

"Thankyou, m'm. But it's a different color from my travellin' suit. Please, m'm, could you spare me some of your husband's old clothes that this patch will match?"

"Well, I declare! I'll give you an old suit, however. Here it is."

"Thankyou, m'm. I see it's a little large, m'm. But if you'll kindly furnish me with a square meal mebby I can fill it out."—New York Weekly.

AS SHE UNDERSTOOD IT.

The young man had married perhaps with love as a secondary consideration. At all events, his wife had a fortune in her own right, and they began keeping house in a grand mansion of her own.

One day the bridegroom's mother wished to send a message to his daughter-in-law, and there was nobody but Bridget to take it.

"Did you give the note to my son's wife herself?"

"Yes, m'm."

"Did you ask her whether she was my son's wife?"

"No, m'm."

"Then how do you know that she was the one you saw?"

"I asked her if your son was her man, m'm, bein' as that seems to be the case instead of the other way."—Chicago Record-Herald.

THE ONLY SAFE WAY.

He took the money out of his pocket and counted it.

"Too much," he commented. He put a ten dollar bill back in his pocket and hid the rest away under a pile of shirts in a drawer of his dresser.

"Why are you doing that?" asked his wife.

"We're going to the church fair tonight, aren't we?" he returned.

"Yes."

"Well, I know just how much I can afford to let the ladies of the church guild get, and I'm taking no chances."—Chicago Post.

HE WANTS TO KNOW.

"Paw," said little Johnny Wise, "I see that when a man gets married in Paris he has to have three ceremonies performed."

"Yes, my son," said Mr. Wise, "that is because—"

"But what I wanted to know is, will he have to get three divorces if he ever wants to separate from her?"—Baltimore American.

INNOCENT.

He Did.

"Harold, do you ever think of me when you are alone?"

"Sweetheart," he said, turning his dark eyes full upon her, "I think of you every day of my life. There isn't a day passes that I don't get a dream about you."—Chicago Tribune.

GREATNESS.

"Don't you think there are great actors today?" asked the young woman.

"Oh, yes," answered Mr. Stormington Barnes. "I am liberal minded enough to use the plural number, although I should dislike to be called upon to particularize."

PERSONAL PATTI.

"Won't it be fine, George, when we can connect on to the wireless telephone and hear Patti singing in London?"

"Good gracious! You don't think she'll still be singing, do you?"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

THE EFFECT.

Castleton—What's the matter with Clubberly's automobile? It seems a little wild.

Fitzleton—He got caught in the country where there was no gasoline and had to use druggist's whisky.—Judge.

CONSOLATION.

"Do you care for Milton's poetry?" asked the young man.

"Not much," answered Mrs. Cumrox.

"I am told that one of his best poems was not considered worth more than $25."—Washington Star.

CONSOLOATION.

Miss Angilar—Do you think my age is beginning to tell on me?

Miss Plumpight—Yes, dear; but then, you have no cause to worry. It doesn't begin to tell the whole truth."—Chicago News.

COULD SEE THE FINISH.

"Yes, we are going to call that little dinner party a 'stag.'"

"Is old Bender going to be there?"

"Yes."

"Then you had better call it a 'stagger.'"

PROVING IT.

"Women are always curious."

"My wife isn't."

"Well, she must be a curious kind of woman."—Washington Times.

THE NATIONAL TALKFEST.

The congressmen Are back again In halls of legislation And now we'll hear For half a year Their talk of conversation.

Day after day Their tongues will play, And jaws will long be working For lots of talk They keep in stock, And no chance they'll shirk.

On questions great They'll oft debate And each his views be airing; Much time they'll waste Because for haste They're very seldom caring.

On subjects tame 'Twill be the same And they'll roar just as loudly If each will talk, If not to mock, Then to his speech point proudly.

And some will "pare" And rip and tear And stir up quite a passion, And some will shout And prance about In old spread eagle fashion.

It matters not What subject's brought Before these famous talkers, They'll all break loose And raise the deuce As boomers or an knockers.

For months they'll chin In halls of legislation And make it plain That they madam The Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 15, 1902.

New York's latest homicide horror has been on the wholesale variety.

Alfred Austin still holds the advantage of an exclusive right to the official trademark on patriotic poetry.

Mr. Ilanne and Mr. Foraker have shaken hands in the senate, possibly as a preliminary to the second round.

Mr. Bryan was recently feted in Boston. This compliment was due him as a highly industrious literary man.

Since Texas struck oil there has been a noticeable dearth in the output of six-shooter dialect stories from that region.

Tom L. Johnson has decided not to let his other reforms wait on the successful establishment of a three-cent street railway fare.

The actor-manager who edits the work of his own press agent must be forgiven if he gradually acquires more or less personal vanity.

The word "conscription" has no terrors for the Boers. They started in by utilizing all the material that could be made available for army purposes.

Football has done much to ease the public mind by making it plain that all the men who wear long hair do not necessarily play the piano or violin.

If the founders of this republic could have foreseen the power of railroads, they would possibly have put a "look out for the locomotive" clause in the constitution.

No doubt J. Pierpont Morgan will startle the country by another enormous purchase as soon as he has recovered from the unusual demands of Christmas holidays.

Some of the South American countries resent any proposals to make dissensions less frequent almost as seriously as Scotland would resent an attack on the ancient and honorable game of golf.

It is difficult to determine whether Mr. Cleveland, in accepting responsibility as a Carnegie institution trustee, re-enters public life or decides to permanently cloister himself as a devotee of abstract wisdom.

France has given the world the benefit of some valuable experience in connection with the isthmian canal project. But it probably will have to abandon hope of collecting a cash emolument and let it go as philanthropy.

By allowing his adversaries to exhaust the vocabulary of epithets, Thomas B. Reed has made life a little easier for his successor in the speaker's chair. No matter what indignation may arise it will be hard to find anything new to be said on the subject.

It is reported from China that the royal family in its progress to Pekin, completed any work of devastation overlooked by the European troops. It is no wonder that Minister Wu as an intelligent and philanthropic gentleman is anxious to get as many Chinamen as possible over to this country.

The Panama canal proposition was not in a shape which entitled it to a moment's consideration, was to involve any delay in the house's action. The house has pronounced in the ratio of five to three unqualifiedly and absolutely in favor of the Nicaragua route and against further investigation.

tion and delay. It has also declared with practical unanimity in favor of the immediate construction of an isthmian canal, and in this verdict it unquestionably voices the sentiment of the American people. Whatever slight delay may be required by senators in order that Columbia's prospective canal proposal may be presented and examined, it is to be assumed that the senate will act with such reasonable expedition as to enable congress at this session to meet without fail the demand of the American people that a beginning be promptly made upon the construction of an isthmian canal.

SENATORS BY DIRECT VOTE.

Agitation for a convention to amend the constitution of the United States plays around the proposition to elect senators by a direct vote of the people. The proposition is deservedly a very popular one. But since it was introduced a fairly good substitute has been found, and much of what is desired in the way of preventing legislative delays and scandals in senatorial elections has been secured in several of the states.

This is the nomination of the candidate for senator by the convention which nominates the state ticket. In that way the candidates for the legislature are instructed as to senator, and when the legislature meets it has but to obey the voice of the people as expressed at the polls. Ohio is on the eve of illustrating for the second time how well this arrangement works. The republican state convention last summer instructed for Mr. Foraker for senator, and the republicans carried the day at the polls. All that remains to be done in the premises therefore is for the legislature to elect Mr. Foraker and this duty will be discharged. The members of that body who should violate his instructions would expose himself to the gravest suspicions, and bring his public career to an inglorious conclusion. And if his constituents were of the more robust sort he might find it advisable not to return home.

The statesmen already have it in their power to take the popular sentiment in a very good way on the subject of United States senators. In the absence of a constitutional amendment calling for a direct vote, why not in every state nominate the senator in state convention, and leave it to the people at the polls to decide the matter in voting for the legislative candidates?

That old plan of electing senators is defective, and has led in many instances to results both regrettable and scandalous, is beyond dispute; and that in some way it should be changed is equally plain. It is pointed out, however, that if a convention to amend the constitution should be called its labors could not be prescribed to it, and many subjects might be introduced. A proposition to disfranchise the negroes led to the calling of a convention in Virginia to revise the state constitution, and the result after six months is a sort of chaos. Everybody seems lost in the wilderness of suggestions on every subject, and members are calling to one another if most pathetic strain for information as to a path out of the woods. The way of the reformer is getting to be almost as hard as that of the transgressor.—Washington Star.

HARBOR FRONT NEWS.

Arrived, Jan. 15.—Steamer Charles F. Mayer, Baltimore, coal.

Perfect Health

Is within the reach of almost every woman. The weakness, nervousness and irritability from which so many women suffer is in general due to disease of the delicate womanly organism. When the disease is cured the general health is re-established.

Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It promotes regularity, drives disagreeable and enfeebled drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. When these diseases are cured, headache, backache, nervousness and weakness are cured also.

"I am very weak and nervous when I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. M. M. Everts, of New Haven, Conn. "Doctor's words were to me like a ray of light in the darkness of my life. I started at the least noise. I felt irritable at all times; was not able to do any of my own house-work; had to keep help all the time. Now I am cured. God and myself alone know it. I was very disengaged when I commenced taking your medicines, but the first batch seemed to help me. I took five bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' two of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and a quart of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pill. I am now suffering for seven long months, and had taken medicine from a physician all the time, but none of mine did me much good. My stomach was weak (so my doctor said me), and I could not eat. I was very weak and nervous. I started at the least noise. I felt irritable at all times; was not able to do any of my own house-work; had to keep help all the time. Now I am cured. God and myself alone know it. I was very disengaged when I commenced taking your medicines."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

MAINE'S HUNTING SEASON.

Surprisingly Large Number Enjoyed the Sport.

The early prediction made by The Messenger, that the hunting season of 1901 in Maine would be a successful one, is fully borne out by the statistics sent out from Bangor, the great central shipping point of the state.

By these figures, it appears that 4,002 deer and 1,100 moose were shipped from there up to December 15, this being by far the largest number of both kinds of game since the sport became so popular. In 1900 3,253 deer and 138 moose were sent through Bangor.

The banner week was that of November 18, when 679 deer and 17 moose were brought to Bangor. It is estimated that, during the shooting season, fully 2,500 deer and 500 moose will before the rifles of native and out-of-state sportsmen.

The mathematical cranks have been at work upon the question and have figured that, for every deer killed in Maine $200 was expended and for every moose $500. This would mean that the hunting fad has this year made Maine between $700,000 and $800,000 richer than it was before the season opened. It is believed that fully 4,000 sportsmen visited the region north and east of Bangor this fall.

Washington county has this year given a good account of itself, and the shipments of game from that section were about twice as large as in 1900.

Each year brings an increase in the number of women hunters, and something representative of the fair sex are credited with having brought down their deer or moose this season. These live in various parts of the country, although for the most part in New England, and some of them have proved themselves to be really excellent shots.

There certainly is not a more health giving, exhilarating pastime for a woman in good health to indulge in, and it is scarcely to be wondered at that so many of them nowadays are taking it up. The intrigues of a journey into the Maine woods have practically become an unknown quantity, as a result of the improved railroad service and the modern methods of conducting camps, so that a hunting trip into the wilderness is really only another form of vacation.

The game laws appear to have been well administered this year, and the only regrettable feature has been the large number of shooting accidents.

Just the Man.

Strikes in Russia.

In Russia the penalty for leading a strike is the same as that for rebellion.

Camphorated Oil.

To make camphorated oil take as much sweet oil as you require and beat it sufficiently to melt camphor, then add camphor in the proportion of an ounce to every half pint of oil.

Berlin Practice.

It is the practice in Berlin when any poor person dies and leaves no heir to have the bed disinfected and stamped by the official stamp of the town council. In this way a large number of beds are collected and are then loaned to the very poor.

Chalk Soil.

The electric cars at Ramsgate, in the south of England, are said to make an undue noise, which is attributed to the resonant nature of the chalk soil.

Sold Furniture.

Finger marks may be removed from furniture by the use of a little olive oil applied with a bit of flannel. Put the oil on the flannel, not on the wood, and rub the wood with it. Use very little at a time.

India's Tea Plant.

In India the tea plant is naturally a tree, but by means of pruning it is kept so small that it seems to be only a bush.

Korea's Dinner.

A German tourist in Korea writes that the usual bill of fare consists of dog meat, rice and beans.

The Leveling Process.

Humboldt calculated the mean level of North America to be 748 feet above the sea, and he found that in 4,500,000 years the whole of North America might be worn down to the sea level.

Just the Way It Is in Boston. Mrs. Gotham—I am surprised, John, to hear you say a good word for that elevated railroad corporation.

Mr. Gotham—Why not?

"Because you are always saying something awful about them when you get home."

"Yes, but I stand up for them nearly every night coming home."—Yonkers Statesman.

Our Live Stock.
The amount of live stock in the United States is worth $1,000,000,000 more than five years ago.

Protect the Piano.
A piano should not stand near an open window, neither should it be pushed close against the wall. Should the keys need cleaning, rub them with a soft muslin cloth slightly dampened with alcohol. The best duster for a piano is soft silk. An old silk handkerchief is good for this purpose.

Utah Watermelons.

A product of the heretofore unproductive deserts of Utah is a kind of watermelon which is picked in October. The melon ripens after it is picked.

Dallas' Distinction.

There are more saddles and harness made in Dallas, Tex., than in any other city in the world.

A Lucky Place.

Orsa, Sweden, has in the course of a generation sold $4,600,000 worth of trees and by means of judicious replanting has provided for a similar income every thirty or forty years. In consequence of this commercial wealth there are no taxes. Railways, telephones, etc., are free.

Born Blind.

The number of persons born blind averages sixty-five in every million.

Grapevines.

As a general rule, where the grapevines have been trained on high frames for arbors they are less subject to rot as compared with vines that have been trained close to the ground.

Roast Beef.

To have the roast beef brown on the outside and juicy and rare within it should be put in a very hot oven at first, then reducing the heat. The great heat at first hardens and also browns the surface, keeping in the juices. The meat should be basted frequently.

The Electric Current.

Experiments show that an electric current will travel over a good conductor at the rate of 500,000 miles a minute, or around the earth in three seconds.

Daisy Roses.

The Daisy rose is a small plant from six to eight inches in height, bearing clusters of small roses resembling double daisies. As many as twenty-five or thirty clusters bloom at once, so it pays to cultivate it for decorative purposes.

Races and Eyes.

Colored races never have blue eyes. Their eyes are always dark brown, brownish yellow or black.

Swiss Schools.

The public schools in Switzerland are operated by the government, and civil service rules are strictly applied. The teachers, who are mostly women, are very well paid and never discharged, except for cause. When they get so old they can't teach any more, they are pensioned liberally.

Aden's Salt.

Aden, on the Suez canal, does a large business in the export of salt secured by evaporating sea water.

Fruit Trees.

There is a wonderful difference in the excellence of well grown, fully developed fruit as compared with that grown on a thin, worn out soil.

German Education.

Germany is now the best educated nation of Europe, yet only hundreds of years ago German teachers in many parts of the country were so poorly paid that they used to sing in front of houses in order to add to their income by odd pence.

Sick Days.

Between twenty-one and thirty a man is ill five and a half days a year on an average and between thirty and forty seven days. In the next ten years he loses eleven days annually and between fifty and sixty twenty days.

The Oldest Flag.

As national flags go the Danish one is the oldest in the world. It has been in use since 1219.

A Bruise.

If vaseline or butter be applied to the skin immediately after a fall of any kind, there will be no discoloration. But to be effectual it must be used directly after the accident. The bruised feeling may be relieved by witch hazel.

FRILLS OF FASHION.

Silk petticoats for wear during the cold weather are lined with albatross in pretty shades.

The most delicate and becoming face veil for mourning wear is formed of Brussels net, with a hemstitched border or draped band.

Some very handsome street costumes in the fashionable Russian green and deep rich sapphire blue shades are seen in kid finished tailor cloth.

For the Louis XIV. coats, which have met with special favor for day and evening wear, flowered and striped silks answer best.

Initial stockings are among the prettiest of lace stockings. There is a diamond of network introduced into the instep of the stockings, and upon this is the initial.

Poultain or horseskin, is included in the fashionable furs, and prepared according to the latest process it resembles satin or paume and combines admirably with the fine lace cloths that are so much worn this season.

The newest tailor gowns designed for early spring wear are very much on the lines of those worn last autumn, but almost without exception the coats have no collars and are very closely fitted—that is, giving a straight front effect, but having the side darts curved exactly to the figure.

The annual meeting of the York Kittery and Eliot Sunday school association will be held with the Second Congregational church, York, today Wednesday. Among the speakers will be Rev. John A. Goss, pastor of the Clinton church at York Corner, formerly of Portsmouth, who will present a paper on "The Sunday School a Means of Grace."

There was quite an excitement today when the L. G. O. Taylor people reported a place, No. 13 Daniel street, running full blast, selling high balls and low balls to standing room only, but upon investigation it was found that only rifle balls at three shots for five cents were on tap there, at the Shooting Gallery and Amusement Place, No. 13 Daniel street.

The regular meeting of the hall committee of the Odd Fellows lodges of this city was held Tuesday evening and the regular routine of business was transacted. P. G. Charles H. Keene of Osgood Lodge was elected chairman and secretary and it was voted to make improvements and alterations in the lodge room for the better convenience of the brothers.

One of the fastests basket ball games of the season will be played at Peirre hall, Thursday evening, Jan. 16, between Co. B, winners of last season's league championship cup, and a picked team called the Portsmouth's, picked from the best basket ball players in the city. There is considerable rivalry, as the Portsmouth's think they can lower the colors of Co. B.

PORTSMOUTH VETS GET NEW TUB.

The old hand tub fire engine "Franklin Fire" was sold at auction at the navy yard at noon today. The Portsmouth Veteran Firemen's Association being the successful bidder.

AT THE NAVY YARD.

H. W. Edson of this city has been alled on as a machinist in the equipment department.

John Casey of Somersworth has resigned his place as machinist in the equipment department.

A new grinding machine of the first make has been placed in the machine shop of the steam engineering department.

John Leahy, who has been away from his work for several weeks on account of sickness, has returned to his duties in the cooper shop.

Much of the heavy machinery in the basement of the steam engineering machine shop will be moved to make room for the tracks of the steam railroad to be put in at once.

Mr. Williams, representing the Buckeye Engine company of Salem, Ohio, is at the yard attending to some slight matters in connection with new engines of the electric light plant.

GRANDER THAN EVER.

That grandly spectacular and weird Faust, with the only Lewis Morrison as Mephisto, was the excellent production at Music Hall on Tuesday evening, before a big and thoroughly delighted audience. The elaborate scenery and beautiful electrical effects, together with a vividly realistic picture of flaming sulphurous Inferno in the third act are as before factors in the beauty of the production, but it is the heart interest evoked by the purity of Marguerite, the passion of Faust and the subtle deviltry of Morrison's Mephisto which appeal so strongly to Portsmouth audiences and leave a lasting impression when the memory of brilliant light effects and beautiful scenery is faded. The beauty of the garden scene has this season been enhanced by a series of new electrical and caleum effects which are finely graduated by skilled electricians.

SHOULD NOT BE CONFUSED.

Capt. J. M. Flinnerty, organizer and inspector of the volunteer life saving corps, is visiting in town. For fear that the scheme of the so-called National Benefit association, which has been exposed in the Herald by Supl. Harding, should not be confused with the good work of Capt. Flinnerty, it should be stated that the work of the latter is entirely of a different nature. Capt. Flinnerty has been on the trail of the fraud exposed by Capt. Harding, and may soon have some of the swindlers in jail.
